LEWELLING'S APPOINTER ENJOINED BY THE SUPREME COURT.

Mrs. Lease Presides at Another Meeting of the State Board at Kansas City, and Again Asserts the Justice of Her Cause-The Governor Still of the Opinion That She Will Have to Go. General Notes.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 4.-The fight be tween Mary E. Lease and Governor Lewelling bas finally found its way into court, and the right of Governor Lewelling to remove Mrs. Lease without an investigation, as provided by law, will be passed upon by the supreme court. This morning Eugene Hagan, as counsel for Mrs. Lease, appeared before Chief Justice Herse, appeared before Cuter Justice. Horton and filed a petition in que war-ranto, asking that a writ be issued by the court ousning J. W. Freeborn from his seat as member of the state board of charities. The writ was granted by Justice charities. The writ was grained by was an brier restraining Mr. Freeborn from acting as a member of the state board of charities, from drawing any salary as such member, or from interfersalary as such member, or from interfer-ing in any way with the actions of Mrs. Lease as a member and president of the board. Mr. Freeborn was notified by wire by J. C. Brown, clerk of the supreme court, that such restraining order had been granted, and the papers will be served upon him by the sheriff of any county where he happens to be at the time of service.

When asked what he thought of Mrs. Lease's proceeding, and whether he would take a hand in the fight in court, Governor Lewelling said: "I don't want to talk any more on the subject. There has already been too much said. The controversy now is between Mr. Freeborn and Mrs. Lease, I sm out out of it. I have removed Mrs. Lease and appointed Mr. Freeborn, and it remains to be seen whether my certificate. Lease and appointed Mr. Freeborn, and it remains to be seen whether my certificate amounts to anything. I think it does. I believe I have the right to remove any member of the board, and that I am the sole judge in the case."
"If the court hold differently, and say you must state more specific reasons than you indicated in your notice to her of removal, are you prepared to do it?"
"I am."

ALBUQUEQUE, N. M., Jan. 4.—Judge Coliter, associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico, today placed the Atlantic and Pacific railroad in the hands of Joseph W. Reinhart, John J. McCook and Joseph W. Reinhart, John J. McCook and Joseph C. Wilson, as receivers, on a suit brought by the Mercantile Trust company of New York. The plaintiff was represented by W. B. Childers of this city and W. W. Green of Alexander & Green of New York. General Counsel C. N. Sterry appeared for the Atlantic and Pacific.

The bill alleges that $5,500,000 of the second mortgage bonds are now due, with interest at 6 per cent, and that $165,000 in interest, due March 1, is unpaid. The floating debt is $15,000. The court ordered the receivers to file bonds of $25,000 each, and authorized them to operate the road and take possession of all the property. This action was not unexpected.

OMAHA, Jan. 4.—The segregation of the great system of the Union Pacific railway, it is said, is not so likely to occur as was predicted a month ago, and there is said to be a more general feeling prevalent among the higher officers of the road that the Union Pacific will be able to gain possession of the Union Pacific, Denver and Gulf in the very near future.

New York, Jau. 4.—An official statement issued by the receivers of the Atchison railway system says that the statements recently printed, and perporting to have been made by Solicitor Peck and Receiver Wilson, in which these gentlemen are reported to have said that the Atchison was known to be insolvent as early as last August, and that legal wares drawn in anticipation of the papers were drawn in anticipation of the receivership, are without foundation. The financial report of the company, issued on Dec. 23, continues the statement, showed that its western accounts were normal. The condition of the system then showed a total of demand and time loans and notes, secured by collateral, due from De-cember, 1893, to June, 1894, of $6,700,000, and a total of coupon interest and other fixed obligations due on January 1, of $3,000,000

Since the appointment of the receivers the loans have been continued and the col-lateral held intact for the company. This practically leaves the Atchison company, for itself and all auxiliaries, in addition to the floating debt above stated, owing but $3,900 000, being the agregate amount of interest due on Jan. 1, 1894.

The statement says that prior to Tues-

The statement says that prior to Thesday, Dec. 19, no suppestions were made, nor papers drawn up, nor steps of any kind taken toward the appointment of receivers, when it was decided upon for the best interests of all, and when it was seen that the January interest could not be raised. The statement is signed by J. W. Reinhart and J. J. McCook.

PERSONAL AND IMPERSONAL

-Judge Richard Parker, before whom John Brown and his accomplices were tried, died at Winchester, Va. November 10. He was $3 years of age, and served with credit in the United States house of representatives in 1850 -G. R. Tyler, London's new lore mayor, was an errand boy in the great paper-making house of William Vens bles, whose one time partners suggested to Dickens his famous Cheeryble Brothers, and is now at the head of that establishment. He is considerable of a Cheery ble brother himself. -The czar, while at Copenhagen, is said to have made no secret of his profound dislike to the German language, which he knows but persistently declines to speak or listen to. The other day, while attending a meeting of Danish firemen, he refused to answer one of the officers who addressed him in German until the query was repeated

-At the funeral of a football here at Leicester, England, some time ago, according to the local chronieler, "on the coffin, which was borne to the cemetery in an open hearse, was laid a football, much in the same way that a military or naval officer's chapeau is placed upon the casket containing his body. either side of the hearse walked the members of the club, bareheaded, in blue Jerseys, white knickerbockers and high-laced football shoes. -Mrs. Rosa Veloso, a native of Chilli, died at San Jose, Cal., a few days ago at the age of 100 years. She had four great-grandchildren, one of whom is 15 years old. Two days before a colored woman, Mrs. Dorcas Morris, whose age of 105 years was well authenticated, died at Portland, Ore. Two other centenarians, Mary Page, 104, and Barry Mordecai, 101, died in the Raleigh, N. C., poorhouse within a day of each other the first of this month. -An American aerobat in Vienna lately won a queer wager. He bet a considerable sum with a Vienna strong man that he could not endure to have a liter of water fall drop by drop from a height of three feet upon his hand. When three hundred drops had failen the athlete's face became red and he looked as if in pain. At the four hundred and twentieth drop he gave up, saying it was impossible to hear the pain any longer. The paim of his hand was swollen and inflamed, and in one place the skin had broken open. Only a small portion of the liter of water had gone to make up the four hundred and -"I have occasion now and then," said a man of moderate means. "to have my overcoat repaired. was younger I used to put off the repairing of the overcost until cold weather had actually set in; then I found that by a very singular coincidence seventeen other men had done the same thing, at the same shop, and so I had to wait But now I get my overcoat out along in the latter part of August and run it into the shop then, when business is dull. Then the tailor can give plenty of time to it, and I get my overcoat when I want it. I think that we learn wisdom as we grow olden about overcoats, anyhow,

She Expected to Win. Mamte-I understand that you are candidate for the presidency of the So ciety for the Suppression of Slang?

Gertie-Yep. Mamie-Is there any opposition? Gertle-You just bet there is. Jennie Van Blank is running for it, too. Mamie-There will be a contest

Gertie-That's where you are just hootin', but, you bet, she'll get if where the bottle got the cork - N. Y.

BAKING

"Oh, yes; I gave him a box of eigars assumed to be besting your way through life, while honest people are so busy.

Tramp—I may have done some besting, mum, but one thing I can say with a clear conscience. I never heat can
